2011 County Budget Forums

Multnomah County Chair Ted Wheeler and the Citizen Involvement Committee are holding two forums to gather citizen input that will help shape the Chair's Executive Budget for Fiscal Year 2011.

Creating a Safe Community

Thursday, March 4, 2010 6:00-8:00 p.m.

Focused on county services provided by the Sheriff's Office, District Attorney, Department of Community Justice, and Corrections Health

Creating a Healthy Community

Thursday, March 18, 2010 6:00-8:00 p.m.

Focused on county services provided by the Health Department, Department Of County Human Services, Department of Community Services, Library, and Commission on Children, Families and Communities

Multnomah County is seeking public feedback on specific policy areas that will inform the Chair's Executive budget decisions and the Board's budget deliberations. The meetings are intended as informal, small group discussions to gather the community's priorities, input and questions.

For the tenth time in as many years, Multnomah County again faces cuts to programs and services in the community. Your ideas and comments tell county leaders what's most important to you.

Location:

Multnomah Building, Boardroom
501 SE Hawthorne, Portland, OR 97214

Parking is available. Accessible by bus lines #4, 6, 10 and 14.
